DEVELOPER'S UNITS AND PRIVILEGES

6.1 Right to Own and Sell. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Developer (which term shall include its officers and directors) has the irrevocable power to sell, lease or rent Units to any person. Developer shall have the right to transact on the Condominium Property any Business necessary to consummate the sale, lease or rental of Units, including but not limited to the right to maintain models, have signs, maintain an office and employees on the Property and use the Common Elements to show Units. A sales and rental office, signs and all items pertaining to sales and rentals shall not be considered Common Elements and shall remain the property of the Developer.

5.2 Assessments Against Unbuilt or Unsold Units

- (a) The Developer shall not be obligated to pay nor shall there be any assessment against any Unit in additional Phases until a Unit has been fully constructed and offered for sale.
- (b) The Developer ray elect to quarantee to purchasers of Units that assessments for Common Expenses during any stated period of time shall not exceed a specified dollar amount and that Developer shall pay any Common Expenses in Excess of the guaranteed level. If Daveloper elects to do so, this guarantee shall be made a part of the documents provided to purchasers prior to closing, as required by Florida law, or may be case by separate agreement between the Developer and not less than a majority of Unit Owners other than the Developer. Should the Developer elect to make such a guarantee to Unit Owners, the Developer shall be exempted from liability for Common Expenses attributable to Units owned by the Developer, during the period of the guarantee.

If the Developer elects not to make such a guarantee, then it shall nonetheless be exempt from payment of any Common Expenses attributable to Units owned by the Developer for a period of time terminating no later than the first day of the fourth calendar month following the month in which the closing of the sale of the first Unit occurs.

However, during this period the Developer must pay the portion of the Common Expenses incurred during the period which exceed the amount assessed against other Unit Owners.

5.3 Right to Change, Divide or Combine Units. The Developer reserves the right to change the interior design and arrangement of, and to divide or combine one or more Units or portions thereof at any time prior to the sale of such Units by the Developer, provided that the share of the Cormon Elements, Expenses and Surplus applicable to such divides or combined Units shall include all of the shares of ownership interest in the Common Elements and Surplus attributed to the Units affected.

- 5.4 Easement for Access and Utilities. The Developer expressly reserves a perpetual easement for ingress and egress and for all utility installation and maintenance over, across and under all the roadways and parking areas as shown on Exhibit A.
- 5.5 Developer's Right to Manage. Developer hereby reserves unto itself the right to manage all of the affairs of this Condominium and all of the affairs of the Association including naming all directors and officers of the Association as long as the Developer owns more than 85% of the Units in the Condominium. Thereafter, the Unit Owners shall be entitled to elect directors of the Association as specified in Section 718.301, Florida Statutes, as it is amended from time to time.
- .5.6 Prohibited Actions. So long as the Developer is the owner of record title to any Unit, and holds that Unit for sale in the ordinary course of business, none of the following actions may be taken without approval in writing from the Developer:
- (a) Assessments of the Developer as a Unit Owner for capital improvements;
- (b) Any action that would be detrimental to the sale of Units by the Developer; provided, however, that a "uniform" increase in assessments for common expenses without discrimination against the Developer shall not be desired detrimental.

THE ASSOCIATION

- 6.1 Duties: The Association shall administer, manage, maintain and repair the Condominium and the Condominium Property (except for the portions of Units to be maintained and repaired by Owners).
- 6.2 Members and Voting. All persons owning a vested present interest of record in the fee title to any Condominium Parcel shall automatically be members of the Association and their respective membership shall terminate as their vested interest in the fee title to the Condominium Parcel terminates. Membership in the Association cannot be transferred, assigned or pledged in any manner except as an appurtenance to the respective unit.
- 6.3 Powers. Each owner shall be entitled to one vote in the Association for each Condominium Parcel owned by him, which shall be exercised only by that Owner or his proxy.

  If a person owns more than one Unit, he shall be entitled to one vote for each Unit owned. In the event a Unit is owned by more than one person or by a corporation, trust or other entity, the individual entitled to cast the vote for that Unit shall be designated by a certificate filed with the Secretary of the Association and signed by all joint owners of the Unit or by an authorized agent of the corporation or other entity. laws of the State of Florida, and the powers created by the Condominium Act, the rights, powers and duties accorded to it by this Declaration.

6.4 Expenses: All expenses of the Association shall be assessed as Common Expenses of the Owners, as provided in the By Laws.

ARTICLE VII

MAINTENANCE, ALTERATION AND REPAIR

The responsibility for the maintenance and repair of .the Condominium Property shall be as follows:

- 7.1 Association. The Association shall maintain, repair and replace:
- (a) All Common Elements, including but not limited to all boundary walls of the Units except interior surfaces, all portions of the Unit contributing to the support of the building, the cutside walls of buildings, floor and ceiling slabs, load bearing walls, and floor slabs of patios, and all fixtures on the exterior.
- (b) All conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring and other facilities for the furnishing of utility services to the Units, except those facilities which are the responsibility of the Owners to maintain, and all facilities contained within a Unit that service parts of the condominium other than Units in which they are contained.
- (c) All other items which the Board of Directors of the Association determines shall be maintained, repaired or replaced by the Association, in-accordance with uniform policies, consistently applied.

The Association shall have access to each Unit during reasonable hours as may be necessary for repair or maintenance of any Common Elements located therein or accessible therefrom and shall have such rights of access in emergencies as are necessary to prevent damage to a Unit or to the Common Elements.

- 7.2 Owner. The Owner shall:
- (a) Maintain, repair and replace all portions of each Unit except the portions to be repaired and replaced by the Association. The areas to be maintained by the Owners shall include but not be limited to:
- i. Heating and air-conditioning equipment serving the Unit, and the ducts, pipes; wiring, controls, and other apparatus serving only that Unit, even though located outside the Unit boundary.
- ii. All kitchen and bathroom fixtures, apparatus and equipment.
- iii. All electrical, plumbing, telephone and television fixtures, apparatus, equipment, outlets, switches, wires, pipes, and conduits within the unfinished surfaces of the boundary walls of the Unit, and any such items serving only one Unit, even though located outside the Unit boundary.
- iv. All doors within the Unit including those which open to the Unit from an entranceway or the outside, interior walls and partitions, wall decorations and built-in furniture, windows and window apparatus and glass, sliding glass doors, screens and screen supports.

- (b) Not install any mechanical equipment which causes annoyance to the occupants of other Units.
- (c) Not paint or otherwise decorate or change any portion of the exterior of the Unit building including the balconies.
- (d) Promptly report to the Association any defects or need for repairs for which the Association is responsible.

If the Owner shall fail to commence and diligently pursue the maintenance and repair required by this paragraph within ten (10) days after receiving written notice of his failure to do so from the Association, the Association shall have the right to make such repairs, maintanance or replacement at the expense of the Owner. If the Cwner fails to reimburse the Association for such expenses upon demand, the Association shall have a lien for such expenses upon that Owner's Condominium Parcel.

7.3 Alterations and Improvements. Neither an Owner nor the Association nor any other party (except the Developer as specifically set forth herein) shall make any alteration or additions or removals in the portions of a Unit that are to be maintained by the Association or do anything that will jeopardize the safety or coundness of the Building or impair any easements without first obtaining unaninous approval in writing of Cwners and portgagess of record of all Units in which such work is to be done and of the Stard of Directors of the Association. A copy of plans for such work prepared by an architect licensed to practice in Florida shall be filed with the Association prior to the start of any such work, the cost of which exceeds $5,000.00. Alterations, additions or removals to the Common Elements may be made upon the approval of the Owners of 2/3 of the votes in the Association.

.7.4 Reconstruction or Repair After Casualty.

- (a) Determination to reconstruct or repair. If any part of the Condominium Property shall be damaged by casualty or taken by Eminent Domain, the Board of Directors shall determine as to each Unit whether or not it is tenantable after the casualty. If Units to which 50% or more of the Common Elements are appurtenant are found to be tenantable, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired as provided herein. If Units to which less than 50% of the Common Elements are appurtenant are found to be tenantable, the Board of Directors shall:
- i. Obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the costs to rebuild or repair, and the amount of insurance proceeds available to pay such costs.
- ii. Give all Owners notice of the casualty, specifying the above information, and calling a meeting of Owners to be held within thirty (30) days from the date of the notice.

At the meeting, the Owners shall consider whether to repair or replace the damage or to terminate the Condominium.

If Owners of 66 7/3% of the votes.of the Association vote to repair or replace the damaged property, it shall be repaired or replaced. Otherwise, the Condominium shall be terminated without agreement as provided in Article XIII, paragraph 1.

- (b) Responsibility. The responsibility for reconstruction and repair after casualty, shall be the same as for maintenance and repair of the Condominium Property and the Association shall have the same rights as therein provided (Article VII, paragraph 2) to make repairs which are the responsibility of an Owner if that Owner fails to do so.
- repaired, the Association shall make available the proceeds of insurance or from Eminent Domain as provided herein to repair or replace the damage. If the proceeds are not sufficient to reconstruct and repair the damaged property, assessments shall be made against the Owners responsible for the repair, in sufficient amounts to provide funds for payment of such costs. Assessments for repair of a particular Unit shall be made against the Owner of that Unit. Assessments for repair of Common Elements shall be made against Cwners in proportion to each Owner's share in the Common Elements.
- (c) Disbursement of Funds. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair is less than $10,000 and does not involve damage to structural parts of a building, the Board of Directors shall disburse funds for repair (insurance profiteds plus discessments) immediately.

upon their receipt. If the amount is $10,000 or more, or involves damage to structural parts of a building, funds shall be disbursed by the Board of Directors:

i. only after the Board of Directors has approved the contractor to perform the repair work and the terms of the repair contract;

ii. only to the extent that work is, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, satisfactorily completed.

Funds to repair damages for which the individual Owner is responsible shall be disbursed directly to that Owner, unless there is a mortgagee endorsement as to any part of the insurance proceeds in which event such insurance proceeds shall be disbursed jointly to the Owner and the mortgagee. All such disbursements shall be received in trust for use in the repair or replacement of the damaged Unit. All funds to repair damage for which the Association is responsible shall be disbursed directly by the Association for such repairs or replacements.

It shall be presumed that the first money disbursed in payment of costs of reconstruction and repair shall be from insurance proceeds. If funds remain after payment of all costs of the reconstruction and repair, they shall be distributed to the beneficial conners, except that distributions of insurance proceeds to Conners whose cortagees have a mortgage endorsement as to the insurance proceeds shall be made payable jointly to the Conner and the cortagees.

INSURANCE

The Association shall obtain and maintain policies of insurance covering the Condominium Property and the real property of the Unit Owners. Subject to the following, the Board of Directors shall have discretion in obtaining such policies:

- 8.1 Casualty Insurance. The Association shall obtain casualty insurance covering all buildings, improvements and personal property included in the Common Elements in an amount equal to its replacement value with deductible provisions against loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by standard fire and extended coverage policies and such other risks including, but not limited to, flooding, vandalism and malicious mischief and such other insurance for the Association as is desirable.
- 8.2 Public Liability Insurance. The Association shall obtain insurance insuring the Association and each owner against liability for accidents occurring on any of the Condominium Property.
- 8.3 Premiums. Premiums for insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be paid by the Association as a Common Expense, except that any increase in premiums caused by use of a Unit for purposes other than as a residence, or by misuse, occupancy or abandonment of a Unit shall be assessed against the responsible Owner. If requested to do so, the Association shall furnish evidence of payment of premiums to Owners or mortgagees.

- 8.5 Association as Agent. The Association is irrevocably appointed agent for each Owner and for each mortgagee or other lienholder and for each owner of any other interest in the Condominium Property to adjust all claims affecting the Common Elements arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association and to execute and deliver releases upon payment of claims.
- 8.6 Notice of Actions. If any action shall be brought against the Association which might result in a judgment for an amount greater than the insurance coverage carried by the Association, then the Association shall promptly notify the Unit Owners and they shall have the right to intervene and defend their interests.

ARTICLE IX

COMMON EXPENSES: ASSESSMENTS AND LIENS

- 9.1 Common Expenses. Each Unit Cyner shall pay his portion of the Common Expenses for the condominium and the Association.
- 9.2 Budget. The Board of Directors shall_approve annual budgets of projected expenses for each fiscal year and assess each Owner for his proportionate share of such expenses; provided, however, that so long as the Developer is in control of the Board, it shall not, without the consent of a majority of Unit Owners, impose an assessment for any year which is greater than 115% of the amount for the previous fiscal year.

- 9.3 Payment. Each Unit Owner's assessment, for his Condominium Parcel shall be due and payable to the Association in twelve (12) equal monthly installments in advance unless some other less frequent payment schedule is adopted by the Board of Directors. If necessary to cover unanticipated expenditures which may be incurred during the fiscal year, the Board of Directors may levy special assessments against Unit Owners in proportion to their share of the Common Expenses. In addition, the Board of Directors may assess Owners for certain expenses attributable solely to their Unit. Such assessments may be for costs specifically provided herein (such as reconstruction or repair after casualty) or may be in the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- 9.4 Ins and Late Charges. Any assessments provided for in this Declaration which are not paid when due shall bear interest from the due date until paid at the maximum rate allowed by law or such lower rate as the Board of Directors shall determine, shall be subject to a late charge as may be set and uniformly applied by the Board of Directors and shall entitle the Association to an attorneys fee in the collection thereof. The Association shall have a lien on each Condominium Parcel as provided in Section 728:116,

TRANSFER OF UNITS

To maintain the Condominium as a community of congenial residents, the transfer of all Units, other than those owned by the Association or the Developer, its officers or directors, shall be subject to the following restrictions:

- 11.1 Transfers Subject to Approval. All transfers of a Condominium Parcel or any interest therein (including without limitation sales, leases, assignments or other transfers) shall be subject to the approval of the Association, which shall act through the Board of Directors, except the following:
- (a) Transfer of a Condominium Parcel of interest therein by gift without consideration; and
- (b) Transfer of a Condominium Parcel of interest; therein by devise or intestate succession.
- 11.2 Notice. An Owner desiring to sell, convey, lease for a period of more than one (1) year, or otherwise transfer his Condominium Parcel (the Transferring (wher) shall first give the Board of Directors written notice of the proposed transfer specifying the mare and address of the intended  ${\cal P}$ transferee, his business or occupation, financial and character references, the terms of the proposed transfer including copies of contracts providing for the transfer, and such other information as the Board of Directors may reasonably request (all such information is herein called the "Notice").

- .11.3 Options of Association. The Board of Directors shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of the Notice to hold a meeting and either approve or disapprove the transfer. If the transfer is approved, the Board shall promptly furnish a certificate of approval to the Transferring Owner and the transaction shall be consummated as stated in the Notice. If the transaction is not so consummated, then the approval shall terminate. If the Board disapproves the transfer, the Association shall have the following options:
- (a) If the proposed transfer is a sale, the Association shall either purchase the Transferring Owner's interest in the Parcel upon the same terms as provided in the Notice or assign such right to a third party.
- (b) If the proposed transfer is a lease, assignment or transfer other than a sale, the Association may acquire the Transferring Owner's interest on the same terms as stated in the Notice, assign its right to acquire the transferring Owner's interest or require that the transfer not be made.

Upon election of its options, the Board of Directors shall give written notice of its election to the Transferring Owner. If the election is other than that a transfer other than a sale not be made, the transfer to the Association or its assignee shall be closed within thirty (30) days thereafter, or on such later date for closing as may be specified in the Notice, upon the same terms as stated in the Notice. The Board of Directors shall have authority to obtain a mortgage or other financing to make assessments proportionately upon the Owners and to do other acts as may be necessary to close and consummate the transfer of the Condominium Parcel to the Association.

11.4 Failure to Notify. If the Board of Directors fails to give the Transferring Owner any notice within thirty ( days after it receives the Notice, the Transferring Owner may proceed to close the proposed transfer with the named transferee only, at any time within the next ninety (90) days at the price and on the terms stated in the Notice. The Board shall within a reasonable time after the transfer furnish to the transferee a certificate of approval of the transfer which he may record in the public records of the county in which the property is located, at his expense. If the Transferring Owner fails to close the transaction within the ninety (90) day period, upon the terms stated in the Notice, his Candominium Farcel shall again become subject to the Accordation's right of approval as herein provided.

Owner shall enter into any contract or other document providing for transfer of any interest in a Unit unless such document specifically provides that the transfer is subject to the rights of the Association contained in this Article, and further provides that the contracting parties shall indemnify the Association against any costs or expenses, incuding reasonable attorneys fees at trial or, upon appeal, incurred by the Association and arising out of such documents, or disputes relating thereto. If any Owner fails to include such provisions in any contract or other document, that Owner shall so indemnify the Association, and the Association shall have a lien upon that Owner's Unit for its costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys fees at trial or upon appeal.

All deeds, leases or other instruments by which any interest in a Condominium Parcel is transferred in a transaction subject to this Article shall expressly provide that the transferee shall comply with all the rules and regulations of the Association and the terms of this Declaration so long as he owns any interest in the Condominium Parcel, and that he shall not sell, lease or otherwise transfer his interest in the Condominium Parcel without first granting to the Association the same rights as are contained herein.

11.6 Costs. No fees shall be charged in connection with approval or disapproval of any transfer of a Unit, except that an Owner required to give the Notice, may be required to pay the Expenses of the Association in obtaining a credit report upon the prospective purchaser.
